

The True Presence of Christ in the prison camps

Personal Reflection Questions

- Have you ever felt the true hunger for Christ in the Eucharist?
- If yes, is it constant? Does this hunger encourage you to receive him daily? Or is it fleeting?
- If you do not feel that longing for Christ in the Eucharist- why not?
- Is your life too cluttered to even notice that you are missing the True Presence?
- Do you really believe or do you doubt that Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist?
- If you doubt that the bread and wine have been transformed into the Body and Blood of Christ, do you ask for the faith to believe?
